VERDICT AGAINST J. Y. WILLIAMS

Jury Finds That He is Not Entitled to Seat in Council.

DECISION RENDERED.

Evidence Produced by Commonwealth Showed That Defendant Has Moved From City.

A jury in the Corporation Court this afternoon rendered a verdict at 3:30 o'clock that Julian Y. Williams, member of Common Council from the Second Ward was guilty of the charges brought in the quo-warranto proceedings against him and was not entitled to a seat in Council.

Gardner L. Boothe asked for a stay of judgment for thirty days during which time he could file an appeal to the Supreme Court and the stay was granted.

Some time was lost after court opened waiting for the appearance of several jurors who had been summoned at the last moment to complete the venire. Finally the jury was completed, the following having been selected to hear the evidence: James Callahan, J. K. Brown, W .M. Beach, Herman Friedlander, Nicholas J. Lawler, Aaron Katz and Michael Creegan. Isaac Groves was excused on account of his business associations with Councilman Birrell, one of the relators, and W. H. P. Kelly and Moses Jaffa were strouck off the list.

The opening statement was made by Samuel G. Brent, commonwealth's attorney, who is prosecuting the case in the name of the State. He outlined the evidence which he expected to introduce, namely that Mr. Williams had removed from the Second Ward and since last May had been living in Cottage Park, Alexandria county. This constituted a bona fide residence, as he saw it, and Mr. Williams could not come into court with an answer that he had intended to return to Alexandria. Mr. Brent read the law on the subject to the effect that a city should be governed by councilmen and that each ward should have equal representation. If it is permitted, he said, for a member of Council to move from one ward and still hold office of each ward would not be equally represented. He defined the word resident and stated in his opinion Mr. Williams did not meet the requirements of the definition. Mr. Brent stated that the commonwealth would prove that Mr. Williams had offered his home on North Royal street for sale and that his statements that he was preparing to remodel his property on Cameron street to provide apartments for his family could not be accepted as proof of his intention to return to Alexandria.

Gardner L. Boothe, attorney for Mr. Williams, made the answer to Mr. Brent. He stated that Mr. Williams had only done what many men would like to do and which other members of Council had done for years, without question, namely have a home in the country which he could enjoy in the summer time, without losing his rights of citizenship at the place of his real residence. Certainly there could be no objection to this. It was true, he said, that Mr. Williams had lived longer than the summer at Cottage Park, but that was due to two facts, first, the very mild winter which had made it extremely pleasant living in the country, and secondly, on the condition of Mrs. Williams' health. He said that Mr. Williams had never had any intention of giving up his residence in Alexandria where he owned a home on North Royal street as well as a place of business on Cameron street.

The first witness called was J. Fred Birrell who stated that he had received a wedding announcement from Mr. and Mrs. Williams last year which stated that they would be at home in Cottage Park after the return from their wedding trip. On motion by Mr. Boothe to this testimony the fact was brought out that the invitations were issued by the family of Mrs. Williams. During the cross-examination Mr. Birrell denied that there was any personal feeling against Mr. Williams in the bringing of the quo-warranto proceedings but stated that he had the highest regard for him and considered him as one of the strongest and most efficient members of Council.

Councilman Charles B. Marshall testified that he had visited Mr. Williams's residence in Cottage Park on May 29, 1912, and had seen Mrs. Williams there at that time.

George L. Appich testfied to the fact that Mr. Williams had placed his residence on Royal street in his hands for sale about a year and a half ago but had withdrawn it about eight months ago.

W. L. Craven, messenger of Common Council said that he left notices of meetings of council for Mr. Williams at 313 Cameron street. He had bene doing this ever snice Mr. Williams' election to Council.

Alderman J.M. Hill, who is a member of several committees of council with Mr. Williams, testified that he had been told by Mr. Williams to send notices of meetings of committees either to Washington or to 313 Cameron street. He said that Mr. Williams very promptly attended all meetings of committees.

The testimony of Mr. Hill closed the case for the prosecution and Mr. Williams took the stand in his own defense. He answered all the questions that were put to him frankly and without hesitation. At one time during his cross examination by Mr. Brent he became evasive when he was questioned as to the hours he devoted to his business in Alexandria.

On his main examination Mr. Williams went thoroughly into the question of his residence testifying to the facts which were suggested in Mr. Boothe's opening statement. He said that his home on Royal street is his own, that he paid the taxes, water and gas bills and contributed largely to the running expenses. It was at present occupied by his mother, brother and sister, but that it was his own home and that he could come to it freely whenever he desired. He told about having plans prepared for the apartments over his place of business on Cameron street.

At the conclusion of Mr. Williams' testimony the court took a recess until 2 o'clock when the case was given to the jury.

Judge Barley's instructions to the jury were as follows:

The Court instructs the jury that residence is defined to be the place of abode, dwelling or habitation for some continuance of time. To reside in a place is to abide or dwell there permanently for a length of time as contradistinguished from a mere temporary locality of existence. "Residence" depends upon no one fact or combination of circumstances, but must be determined from all the facts and circumstances taken together in each particular case and the declarations of a party as to his intention if they are in conflict with any reasonable interpretation which can be placed upon his acts and conduct are of little value in determining the question of residence, and

The Court further instructs the jury that if they believe from the evidence that Julian Y. Williams, on or about June 1st, 1912,moved from the city of Alexandria, Va., and that he has had his residence there continuously since that time with his wife, and that that is his place of abode, the place to and from which he goes and returns daily, weekly or habitually in his ordinary vocations, which are carried on principally in the City of Washington, they shall find the respondent guilty, but in determining all questions material to this issue the Court further instructs the jury that the burden of proof is on the Commonwealth, and that unless it sustains its contention by a propenderance of the evidence, that they must find the defendant not guilty.

It is for the jury to determine from all the evidence the place of residence of the respondent, and the intention of the respondent with reference thereto, to be gathered from all the facts and circumstances.

UNIQUE CASE IN COURT.

Corporation Court Withdraws Naturalization Papers of Chinaman.

A unique decree was handed down in the Corporation Court this morning when Judge Louis C. Barley entered an order vacating the naturalization papers which were issued in this city in 1887 by the Corporation Court to J. L. Pean, a Chinaman. Pean received his papers contrary to the United States law which prohibits a Chinaman from becoming a citizen of the United States.

Pean was traced to New York where he was located and compelled to give up his papers.

Student Sacrifices Life.

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 13.—In a brave effort to save the life of a companion, Vincent O'Brien, 20 years old, of Germantown, lost his life in Carnegie Lake, near Princeton, N. J., yesterday afternoon. Young O'Brien was a student for the priesthood at Hillcrest, the seminary of the Order of the Congregation of the Mission, and he was skating on the lake with a number of other students. Among these was Thomas F. Ryan, 21 years old, of Boston, with whom young O'Brien had been on more intimate terms than with any others of the institution. Ryan broke through the ice, when O'Brien went to his rescue. The former was saved but the latter was drowned.

(Justice H. B. Caton, Presiding.

There were but two cases before the court this morning.

Lee J. Granthen, who had been arrested at the instance of the authorities at Fort Washington on the charge of desertion, was arraigned, but as no officers appeared to press the charge, he was allowed to depart upon promising to return to the fort.

Pope Grief-Stricken.

Rome, Feb. 13.—Pope Pius X, grief-stricken and impared in health by the death of his sister, did not see her dead body, and declined to have her funeral in St. Peter's, where he might have attended the service.

Instead the Pope ordered for Rosa Sarto a simple funeral befitting the Sarto family's peasant origin. Unimposing services were held in the Church of St. Michael. A second class funeral car conveyed the body to the cemetery at Campo Verano, where it was interred temporarily. Angelo Sarto, brother of the Pope; two other sisters and a niece accompanied the body.

Seeing the great grief of the Pope, the pontifical authorities,who feared that he might leave the vatican whether or no and see his sister's body, which was but a square distant, told Pope Pius that he could hold Rosa Sarto's funeral in St. Peter's, an honor heretofore limited to Pope's and Cardinals. This would have allowed him to see the body.

Rosa Sarto was the favorite sister of the Pope, and often visited the vatican. With her two sisters and a niece she moved to Rome several years ago, because of the Pope's homesickness.

SHOTS WENT WILD.

Woman Said to Have Fired Four Shots With Suicidal Intent.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 13.—In a mood of despondency last night shortly after 7 o'clock, Mrs. Joseph Parrish attempted to commit suicide, according to police reports, in the hall of her boarding house, 806 East Clay street, by shooting herself. In some remarkable manner, although she fired four shots from a 32-calibre revolver, she did not wound herself. No one witnessed the shooting and Mrs. Parrish could not explain how she escaped.

A lodger in the house heard the pistol shots, and running into the hall found Mrs. Parrish lying at the foot of the stairway. Leaving the house he ran to Eighth and Broad streets, where told Patrolman Bosquett a woman had attempted to commit suicide. The officer hurried to the house, and seeing the prostrate form of the woman lost no time in summoning the city hospital ambulance. Dr. H. T. Hawkins responded and a careful examination by him disclosed the fact that Mrs. Parrish was unhurt.

Three of the bullets were found imbedded in the wall where a close search failed to show what had become of the fourth.

T. R. CAMPBELL DEAD.

Former Mayor of Luray—Held Many Offices.

Luray, Va., Feb. 13.—Thomas R. Campbell, postmaster of Luray under the Harrison administration, three terms mayor of Luray, and a number of years chief of police, died here yesterday, aged 81 years.

At various times he had been identified with the Federal government, for a long time being deputy marshal of this district. In this hazardous undertaking he had many escapes from moonshiners in the mountain districts in this county and remote sections of the Blue Ridge in Eastern Virginia. He was apparently devoid of fear. In recent years he devoted himself to clerical work, in which he became proficient after reaching mature manhood.

He was an uncompromising Republican, always taking an active part in the politics of the county. In the early seventies he performed the remarkable task of assessing this county without aid in a shorter period than the work was ever done. He was born in Front Royal, Warren county, but came to this county when a boy. He was a brother of the late William Campbell, for many years sheriff of Page county, and also a brother of Andrew J. Campbell, one of the discoverers of the Luray Cavrns and the first man to effect an entrance of the caves.

He is survived by nine chilrden.

PREPARING FOR A BATTLE IN STREETS

Federals and Rebels Planning for Combat at a Short Range.

MAIN FIRE IN STREETS.

Big Guns Trained on Buildings in Mexico City—Americans Fleeing For Lives—Serious Conditions.

Mexico City, Feb. 13.—At 8 o'clock this morning bugles in all parts of the two armies' quarters were calling the forces together for combat at closer range than at any time since the revolutionary battle in the capital began.

Madero's men moved the heavy cannon into position to demolish buildings at a range of 500 feet. He said he had a force of 7,000.

General Diaz, who boasts of having 6,000 capable soldiers, swung his men into line behind machine guns trained on the Madero forces.

In the fighting which ended last night it is estimated by officials that 300 have been killed and 1,500 wounded. Less conservative estimates placed the death list as high as 2,000 and the wounded at 3,000.

The battle in the streets of Mexico between the forces of President Madero and the rebel leader, Gen. Felix Diaz, was renewed shortly after daybreak yesterday with almost double fury.

The dead numbered a thousand. Last night the central thoroughfares of the capital of the republic were a shambles. At midnight they were still carrying away the slain. The number cannot be estimated.

Under the threatening protest of Ambassador Wilson, supported by the ministers of Spain, Germany, and England, an armistice was arranged shortly before noon. Messages were exchanged between Madero and Diaz. Both were defiant.

Madero's generals made the fatal mistake of taking advantage of the truce to move their lines nearer the arsenal, which is Diaz's stronghold.

At 2 o'clock, after all negotiations had failed,Diaz retaliated with a terrible fire. His heavy guns in the streets, his machine guns that now line the rof edges of the Y. M. C. A., and several other high buildings, together with his sharpshooters, also stationed on the roofs, began an attack that was like an explosion.

Several federal batteries were put out of commission.

The death toll of innocent citizens —native and foreign—was serious in the morning, and was probably trebeled during the desperate fighting of the afternoon.

A conservative estimate places the number of casualties in yesterday's fighting at 90 dead, and 1,300 wounded.

Plans for an invasion of Mexico upon instant notice are being rushed by the War Department.

It became known last night that several railroads,including the Southern Pacific, had been notified to hold themselves in readiness for the movement of troops in the event of an emergency.

Officers from Fort Sam Houston have been ordered to Galveston to look over the ground for a camp site, in the event of it being necessary to rush troops to that place.

Reports received in Washington last night stated that the officers from Fort Sam Houston had been ordered to Galveston, for the purpose of preparing transports for Vera Cruz, but Gen. Leonard Wood, chief of staff of the army, refused to confirm this, stating the officers were engaged in selecting a camp site. General Wood also denied that any troops had been ordered moved.

Thin Ice Forms Across River Last Night - Mercury Down to 15 Degrees

The weather last night was cold, and the brisk northwest wind kept the streets comparatively deserted. Ice formed across the Potomac. It however afforded no impediment to navigation and was soon broken up by the steamboats. The mercury at an early hour was hovering around the 15 mark.

The temperature yesterday averaged below the freezing point, the ice thickened in the gutters, the wind whistled keenly around corners and everyone who had an overcoat buttoned it up tightly before venturing into the open.

At an early hour this morning a young man, apparently asleep, was noticed on a platform in front of a barber shop, on the north side of King street, near Lee. Later he stretched himself out as unconcernedly as if in a bed. He was aroused by a passerby when he arose and strayed across the street, and subsequently moved out of the neighborhood. Early risers at first supposed the thoughtless man had frozen to death during the night, and a report to that effect was circulated about the city. No one seems to have been able to identify the man.

DEATH OF EX-CONFEDERATE

Mr. Adolphus D. Walker, an old and well-known resident, died at his home, 210 Duke street, at 6:45 o'clock this morning. The deceased had recently been stricken with a serious stomach trouble. He is survived by six children—four sons and two daughters—A. E., W. H., E. D., and H. T. Walker, and Mrs. Sisk and Mrs. Kate B. Grimm.

The deceased was born near Philomont, Loudoun county, Va., and was a painter and paper hanger by occupation. At the outbreak of the civil war he became a member of Company H, Sixth Virginia Calvary, and served faithfully until the close of hostilites. Several years ago he removed to this city, where he had since resided.

The funeral will take place from the residence at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

NEW FIRM LOCATES HERE.

Old Established Pawnbrokers to Move From Washington to Alexandria.

The old established firm of E. Heidenheimer, who have been located in Washington for 47 years, has made all arrangements to move their business to Alexandria. They have leased the store on King street between E. Warfield's drug store and the First National Bank which they will occupy on March 1st.

A license was granted to them yesterday. A number of alterations will be made in the building so as to prepare it for the extensive loan business of the firm.

The move on the part of Mr. Heidenheimer is due to the passage of an act by Congress limiting the interest to be charged by pawnbrokers in Washington to one per cent per month. This practically means that the pawnbrokers will be driven out of business in the capital city as it is a well known fact that the average individual loan s so small that the expenses incident to the handling of the collateral and the insurance of the necessary papers cannot be paid from this rate of interest

While Mr. Hiedenhimer expects to do most of his business with residents of Washington he is pleased with the prospects of business in Alexandria.

The firm of Heidenheimer has a splendid reputation in Washington for fair dealing.

The alarm of fire about 4:30 yesterday afternoon was caused by the burning of the roof of a house at Queen and West streets, occupied by James West. The damage was slight.

New Embroidered Patterns.

For genuine beauty and daintiness, distinctive designs and novelty and variety, the present showing of Embroidered Robe Patterns and Embroideries excels all of our previous early season displays—presenting the new ideas suggested by fashion in a countless number of really novel and original designs and patterns that cannot be properly described and whose true beauty cannot be surmised.

ROBE PATTERNS —The newest fabrics are Crepes, Voiles, and Batistes, in many distinctive designs of marked beauty; some of all white, others white ground with exquisite colored embroidery, and beautiful effects embroidered in self-colors. The different sorts vary to a great extent; thus a profusion of designs is shown, all such an acceptable beauty that they are a tribute to feminine taste.

EMBROIDERIES.—Embroideries were never so soft and sheer as they are this season. This feature is splendidly exemplified in the beautiful Batistes and All-Over Bandings.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

READY FOR WAR.

tional Guard Likely to be Sent to Mexico During Revolution.

Richmond, Feb. 13.—News of the risis in Mexico and the probability of nterevention by the Unted States overnmen recalls the fact that orders for the mobilization of the National Guard, in addition to the regualr rmy, are on file in the Wa r Depart_ment and ready to be flashed on the wires at a moment's notice. In regard o the militia, the situation Is exact_y what it was one year ago, when Ad_utant General Sale received thinly veiled hints from Washington to be ready for service orders at any time.

While the National Guard cannot be ordered to invade a foreign country until the militia pay bill becomes law, militia organizatons are subject to instant call for patrol duty on the bor_der and for fightng on the defense, f the occasion demnds. Should Pres_dent Taft and Congress deeme armed intervention in Mexico necessary, mili_ia organizations, partcularly those of the Southern States, wll be called upon to bear a prominent part in the activities.

Under the already prepared plan for the pacification of Mexico, the War Department intends to order 100,000 men under arms on the first call. The strength is only 81,000 of this force only about 40,000 of 50,000 will be vaailable for service in Mexico, as the garrisons of the Phillipine Islands, Porto Rico, Alaska and the Hawlian Islands have to be maintained at reg_lar strength, regardless of the mil_tary operations of th ecountry in other directions. Besides, certain army posts must remain garrisoned.

The discrepancy between the 100,_00 men to be placed in the field and the 40,000 or 50,000 regulars available must be supplied from the ranks of the National Guard and by Volunteers. It has leaked out from the War Of_ice that 60,000 militiamen will be or_dered under arms the moment the de_partment directs an army division to cross the Mexican border or sail for a Mexican port on a mission of invas_on. The National Guard numbers 122,000.

Since the War Department intends to pick but 60,000 of the available 122,000 National Guardsmen, it is gen_erally understood that regiments from the Southern States will be chosen, both because of their proximity to the scene of fighting and their ability to stand up under hot weather. One of the greatest difficulties of a Mexican campaign is admitted to be the heat to be faced by the American soldiers. Conditions in the Sunny South have equipped the Southern militiamen to best withstand the assaults of natural conditions in Mexico.

While General Sale has received no official instruction to have his Vir_ginia commands ready for action, it is regarded as probable that the Vir_ginia volunteers may be called to arms in the first mobilization order.

From the number of letters pouring into the Adjutant_General's office from eager militiamen all over the State, it would appear that the Virginia Vol_unteers will be ready to seize any op_portunity of smelling powder from Mexican guns. Wherever possible, it is understood, the War Department will endeavor to have militia organiza_tions resign as a unt from State ser_vice and offer themselves as volun_teers. It is expected that the bulk of Virginia Volunteers will go to Mexico under this provision ,scorning the tame amusement of border patrol.

Unnatural Mother.

Four cvhildren, the eldest of whom had just passed his tenth birthday, sat unmoved in the Juvenile ourt in Balt_more yesterday while officers of char_ity organization s told how their mother, Mrs. Mary Didwall, used money which should have gone to them to provide a license for her dag. There was no tearful leave_taking when three of the youngsters were taken from the custody of the mother, who heard the disposition of her case with_out apparent feeling, and left the courtroom without a backward glance at the children whom she is accused of trying to abandon. The charity of_ficers told how the mother had tried in many ways during the last year to rid herself of the four children, even going so far as to talk of aban_doning them if some charitable in_stitution did not rid her of their case.

GRANTED RESPITE.

Slayer of Guard John Howard Will Not go to Death Friday.

Richmond, Feb. 13.—Governor Mann this afternoon granted a respite to Roy M. Sullivan, the young murderer who was to have gone to the electric chair Friday morning of this week for the murder of John Howard, a convict guard in charge of road work near Chatham last summer.

The respite is until February 28th, in order to allow the governor further time to consider the petition of state Senator Rison in behalf of commuta_tion of Sullivan's sentnc to life im_prisonment

Sullivan contends that he was bru_tally treated while at the convict camp and that he was gratly angered at the time of the killing of Howard.

WHOLESALE MURDERER.

Staunton Negro Tries to Murder all in House.

Staunton, Va., Feb. 13.—William Campbell, a negro Monday killed his wife and her mother, Rella Baker, and then committed suicide.

The family became involved in a re_ligious dispute Sunday night which lasted into the early hours of Monday, when Campbell became frenzied with religious fanaticism and drawing a revolver shot his wife. The wound was not fatal and she took refuge with her mother in an upper chamber.

Campbell pursued her and this time shot her dead. He then shot his mother-in_law.

George Baker, who with his wife lived with the Campbells and who was sick with pneumonia, sprang from bed and took to the woods, thus escaping, but his wife, Lena, was brought down by Campbell, and is thought to be dy_ing.

Campbell, believing he had killed ev_cry one in sight, placed the body of his wife on a bed and lying down be_side her put the revolver to his temple and blew out his brains.

WAR ON MALARIA.

Governors And Physicians to Meet at Norfolk Conference.

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 13.—Arrange_ments for a conference between lead_ing physicians and Governors of 11 Southern States, to be held in this city February 21, have been completed. The object of the conference is to map out a campaign for the eradication of ma_laria in the South.

Some of the physicians and surgeons who will attend the conference are Dr. W. H. Welch, of Johns Hopkins Uni_versity, of Baltimore; Dr. Rupert Blue, surgeon-general of the army; Dr. W. S. Thayer, of Johns Hopkins; Dr. C. C. Bass, of Tulane University, New Or_leans, and Dr. C. E. Driver, of Nor_folk.

Governors of Maryland, North and South Carolina, Florida, Virginia, Al_abama, Texas, Louisiana, Georgia, Ar_kansas and Mississippi will also at_tend.

Dr. Driver stated last night that it would probably be decided at the con_ference to adopt the method now in vogue in Italy for the eradication of malaria along the Southern seaboard. Dr. Driver, who studied the Italian plan under Prof. A. Celi, of the Public Health Department of Italy, says that the percentage of malaria cases has been reduced from 55 per cent. to 2 per cent. in that country.

Following the conference an elabo_rate banquet will be held at the Mon_ticello, to which 300 guests will be invited.

VICTIM OF ROBBERS.

Traveling Man Held up in His Room In Hotel.

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 13.—Held up at the point of a pistol by one man, while another went through his clo_thing, Ralph W. Larsen, a traveling salesman from New York, was rob_bed of $100, a stick pin valued at $12, and a suitcase full of clothing, in room 548 of the Monticello Hotel, at which he was stopping.

Not content of robbing him of all his belongings, the two holdup men locked Larsen in his room, leaving the key in the outside door, while they quietly made their escape, whe_ther or how is a mystery still unsolved.

Happening, as it did, about 12 o'clock, when the guests of the ho_tel were coming in for the night, the robbery was one of the boldest that has come off in this city recently, and has baffled the police as well as Hotel Detective Hargrove at the hotel.

How the men managed to make their escape is a mystery, as no one in the hotel saw any men answering the description leave the place, nor had the elevator boy brought any one down.

BOMB IN LYNCHBURG.

Lynchburg, Va., Feb. 13.—Although Mrs. George M. Jones, a wealthy wo_man, 80 years old, was blown out of her bed early yesterday morning by a dynamite explosion which damaged her home, the shock did her no harm. The police say it was an attempt at murder.

The dynamite was placed on the front porch of Mrs. Jones' home, un_der her bedroom window and almost five feet from where she slept. Fortu_nately the force of the explosion was outward and upward, wrecking the porch and breaking all the windows on that side of the house. Yesterday morning over a bushel of glass was swept up. The fuse was 33 feet long, giving the dynamiter a chance to es_cape.

The miscreant is thought to have been the same man who some weeks ago daubed red paint over the statue of the late George M. Jones in front of the Jones Memorial Library, given to the city and endowed by Mrs. Jones.

The police assert they have a strong clew to the perpetrator of the crime, and have established his motive, but refuse to make public what they know. They promise an arrest soon.

Steamer in Distress.

Newport News, Va., Feb. 13.—Leak_ing, short of coal and with her after wheelhouse carried away and the steering gear badly damaged, the British steamer Meridian, which is en route from Shields to Nite Bay, Cuba, put into port here yesterday in dis_tress, bringing a tale of one of the roughest voyages ever experienced by her officers. The ship was 30 days making the trip usually made in from 12 to 18 days, and she had barely enough coal in her bunkers to reach port.

Conditions in West Virginia.

Conditions late last night in the strike district of Kanawha county are regarded as serious. War upon the state practically has been declared.

At a meeting of union miners held Tuesday night at Smithers Creek, on the north side of the Kanawha River, attended by 1,500 union miners, resolu_tions were adopted threatening the life of Governor Glasscock, Sheriff Hill, and the military forces now in the field. It is also reported late last night that some of the participants in the meeting freely discussed their ac_tion in saloons at Montgomery yes_terday and that copies of the resolu_tions were posted in certain saloons at that place.

The military authorities have been informed of the action taken at this meeting, and an attempt will be made to apprehend the leaders. According to the report received here late last night, the miners decided to march on the military camps in the martial law district, slaughter the soldiers and turn loose the prisoners now under guard at Paint Creek.

You are paying more than their price, partly in the cost of some other illuminant, partly in inconvenience, partly in matches, smoke, soot—partly, or perhaps many times, or many thousands of times over, in the lack of safety and in robbing the air you breathe of the elements that sustain life and health.

Salves Can't Cure Eczema
In regard to skin diseases, medical authorities are now agreed on this: Don't imprison the disease germs in your skin by the use of greasy salves, and thus encourage them to multiply. True cure of all eczematous diseases can be brought about only by using the healing, curative life force of a liquid. THAT'S WHAT D.D.D. IS. WASH with D.D.D. Soap. A pleasant wash. A compound of Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol, and other ingredients, combined with the D.D.D. Prescription. This penetrates to the disease germs and destroys them, then soothes and heals the skin as nothing else has ever done.
A 50 cent bottle will start the cure and give you instant relief.
We have made fast friends of more than one family by recommending this D.D.D. Prescription to a skin suf_ferer. Just think! $1.00 can't cost you much if it fails, and we'll try it now on our positive guarantee. D.D.D. Soap keeps the pores clean; use it.

MARTIAL SPIRIT OF VIRGINIA AGAIN AROUSED.

As will be seen by a dispatch from Richmond elsewhere in the Gazette, the Old Dominion is ready to respond to the call to arms. Members of the military companies throughout the state are notifying the general officers that they are ready to proceed to Mexico at the call of the President, and are apparently as anxious to go forth in defense of their country as were their progenitors in the days of Washington, again in 1812, in 1846 when Mexico had to be taught a lesson, in 1861, when state's rights were about to be trampled upon and the sovereignty of Old Dominion was menaced and in 1898, when the United States could bear with the arrogance of Spain no longer.

Prepanations are being made by the government by which at least three transports will be brought to Newport News and kept in readiness to carry Virginia's quota to the scene of carnage.

All regret that another brush with Mexico seems imminent. Since the brief conflict during the latter part of the forties the United States and Mexico have been on the best of terms. Santa Anna was, of course sore so long as he lived, but after he had passed from earthly scenes everything went on serenely.

When Meico was menaced during our civil war by Louis Napoleon who placed Maximilian upon the throne of the sister republic, President Lincoln sent earnest protests against the procedure. The United States let it be known that when peace should again be in evidence the French would be driven out of Mexico. A popular upheaval, however, prevented a clash between this country and France, as Maximilian was captured and executed by the Mexicans. Louis Napoleon made no attempt to rescue the emperor of his making, not for fear of the Mexicans, but of the American eagle under whose wings the smaller republics nestle when in trouble.

Battle on Chatalja Line.

London, Feb. 13.—A news agency dispatch from Sofia said that a fierec battle is being fought between Bulgarians and Turks on the Chatalja lines. The Turks have lost several thousand killed and wounded and the Bulgarian casualties are heavy, the report says.

AN UNWARRANTED ATTACK.

(Comunicated.)

Mr. Editor:

Several weeks ago an article appeared in one of the Alexandria papers headed "Honesty and Justice," signed by "R." The following lines appeared in said writing: "For my part I can really understand the majority's misgivings to let the voters of the First Ward determine the selection. They remembered, no doubt, the voter's faulty and unfair appraisement of one of the city's best and most faithful members of the Council now in retirement because of this woeful blunder, and wish to spare us a like misfortune." The same paper of Wednesday, evening, February 12th, just after the meeting of Council, contained an article which said that Mr. Spinks was living in the Second Ward and representing the First Ward in the lower branch of Council. It gathered a little more nerve and instead of characterizing him as the "woeful blunder" and "like misfortune," it presented his name to the people.

Who is this "woeful blunder"; what "like misfortune" has the people—the qualified voters of the First Ward—inflicted upon the people of our city? What has Frank Spinks done to merit this villification and abuse which is being hurled at him? Is he a good citizen? If not, why did the people of the Fourth Ward elect him to Council and keep him there? If he is not honest and trustworthy, why did the voters of the First Ward elect him as their representative, thereby retiring one the paper referred to called him the one of the "best and most faithful and intellectual members of Council?"

Let's examine the records and see what this "woeful blunder" and "like misfortune" has done as a member of Council. Who was in the lead in the fight against the horde of carpetbaggers who tried to wrest from the city the Gas Works, one of the most valuable assets the city now owns—this "woeful blunder"—a fight in which he was succesful and the people's interest protected. Again, a few years ago, owing to the financial condition of the city—it was determined to sell the electric light franchise. Where do we find the "woeful blunder" and "like misfortune?" Standing like a stone wall in the interest of the people. It came to a vote and fifteen out of sixteen members of Council voted for it—and "woeful blunder," true to his convictions, against it. Being outvoted, he never gave up. When the bids were advertised for, and one of them was about to be accepted, which wanted to give the people electricity at fourteen cents a kilowatt, this "woeful blunder" and "like misfortune" got out an injunction against the powers who had control—and prevented the deal. After holding the mater up for about a year Council again advertised for bids and the result was that the people secured their electricity at seven cents per kilowatt, or a saving of fifty per cent. or at least $20,000 a year—all on account of this "woeful blunder."

Another thing which "woeful blunder" and "like misfortune" did. After the new management took charge of the electric light plant it was found that they were not living up to their contract in regard to the 2,000 candlepower lamp. He introduced a resolution in Council and a special committee was appointed and the trouble remedied. The facts concerning investigation are well known to all, except the paper referred to, for it has not been in existence long enough to know the geographical lines dividing the ward, especially when it says openly that Mr. Spinks—"this woeful blunder" lives in the Second Ward and represents the First Ward in Council. But there are none so blind as those who will not see.

In conclusion, Mr. Editor, on Sunday last when the fire bells warned a quiet city that danger lurked in and around some fire side, young and old wended their way to the scene of the conflagration—some for curiosity, some for amusement, others because it is the natural trend of our people to attend fires and funerals. I happened to go to the seat of trouble, and there amid stifling smoke and fearful blaze, almost breathless, I could see the volunteers working manfully to save not only what was burning, but perhaps the entire section. I noticed this "woeful blunder" with a rubber coat on with the flames and smoke surrounding him with others working with might and main to move a carload of gasoline out of danger. A hazardous undertaking to say the least, for if it had ignited nothing would have saved the section of the city. If there is nothing else to endear him to the hearts of the people who elected him, this will stand as a beacon on a rocky coast and the "puffs" of hot air will be as helpless against it as the raging sea is against the Rock of Gibraltar. I, for one, believe, that Frank C. Spinks this "woeful blunder" or "like misfortune," if you please, is a valuable member of our city government and his work for the city—oftentimes at his own expense will erect for him a reputation, in the hearts of those who want to know, that will stand unhurt amid the wreck of ages and crush of worlds.

GEORGE H. HAYDEN.

DANGEROUS PASTIME.

From the time the revolving doors were placed in the postoffice building of this city attention has been called to the danger of children amusing themselves by setting the doors spinning. The police have on many occasions brought such diversions to a close, but after a short time children, mostly those going to or returning from the publis schools, have stopped for the purpose of setting the doors in motion. A few days ago a lady of this city was painfully and seriously injured by being caught by the doors while they were spinning around, and last night a well-known merchant was about to enter the postoffice building from the north, but upon seeing that the door on that side of the building was moving rapidly, having been set in motion by children, and not caring to take any risk by running the gauntlet, went to the St. Asaph street side and entered.

As has heretofore been stated, persons guilty of misdemeanors in the postoffice and custom house building will be tried by a federal tribunal, presided over by R. W. P. Garnett, U. S. Commissioner. It is hoped he will not be compelled to sit in judgment upon the youngsters, most of whom are personally acquainted with him; although if the practice described above is persisted in, he will, of course, be compelled to do his duty as a government official. It is also hoped parents will read the above with interest, as their children are liable to serious injury, sooner or later, if they continue the dangerous diversion.

ACTS OF VANDALISM.

Wanton Destruction of Gas Lights Leave Certain Intersections In Darkness.

Some time ago the committee on light of the City Council began the work of placing powerful gaslights at intersections where there are no electric arc lights. They have within a few years utilized lamp posts at a number of interesctions, which work is greatly appreciated by people living in vicinities which had previously been in darkness. It was the purpose of the commttee to continue this work until every street section at which electric lights have not been placed shall have one of these modern gaslights.

It seems, however, that some people prefer darkness to light, and at several points the lights have been wantonly destroyed, notably at Washington and Cameron streets, where one is most needed.

These lights cost the city five dollars a piece, and it is hoped the police will soon arrest perpetrators of this species of annoyance and that the Police Court will impose the full penalty of the law in all cases.

ACHING KIDNEYS CURED IN ALEXANDRIA

Are YOUR Kidneys Weak?

HOW TO TELL—First read t the testimony and learn what Doan's Kidney Pills have done for others.

Then if your back aches, if sharp pains strikes you when stooping or lifting; if you are lame in the morning, tire too easily, if you have dizzy spells and are nervous, despondent and inclined to worry over trifles; if the kidney secretions are highly colored and full of sediment, if passages are too frequent, scanty, painful or scalding, it is likely that your kidneys need quick attention.

Take a sample of the urine and let it stand for 24 hours. If a sandy, brick-dust sediment settles at the bottom of the receptacle, there is evidence enough to suspect the kidneys.

If Your Back Aches and Your Kidneys are Weak, Get the Kidney Remedy That Has Been Proved GOOD Again and Again Right Here in Alexandria.

Alexandria People Tell It:

King Street

H. C. Smith, tailor, 919 King St., Alexandria, Va., says: "I hope my testimonial will be the means of getting other sufferers to use Doan's Kidney Pills and be cured as I was. I couldn't begin to tell the agony I endured from my Back. I didn't find anything that would cure me until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. They made me well in less than a month, and during the past two years I have had no trouble. The testimonial I made at the time they cured me still holds good."

Prince Street

Mrs. J. B. Driscoe, 115 Prince St., Alexandria, Va., says: "My experience with Doan's Kidney Pills have been so wonderful that I feel it is my duty to tell of it. I had dizzy spells and the kidney secretions were in bad shape. When I lay down there was a feeling of distress across my back which took all sleep from me. Morning I was all worn out and my back was sore and lame. The pain affected my nerves and I was nearly frantic. I did a lot of doctering and took different remedies, but my health became worse. Weak kidneys were causing all this trouble. After all this suffering I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills and used them. They relieved the trouble. I urge other sufferers to take Doan's Kidney Pills."

Duke Street

Mrs. C. V. Gardner, 1211 Duke St., Alexandria, Va., says: "The cure Doan's Kidney Pills made for me some years ago has been permanent and I haven't needed anything for my kidneys since. I had not suffered very long before I took Doan's Kidney Pills and didn't really know what was the matter, but I got real bad with weakness and lameness through my back. For a few days I couldn't attend to my housework. I had to lie down most of the time, and it was the same when I went to bed at night. I finally got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Leadbeater & Co.'s Drug store and they cured me."

Queen Street

J. T. Langley, 513 Queen street, Alexandria, Va., Says: "During the past four years, since Doan's Kidney Pills cured me of kidney complaint, there has been no return of the trouble. I repeat the praise I have previously given this remedy. I had a bad back and I think the trouble was caused by a strain. I could not stoop, and when I got up in the morning, I could hardly move. I noticed sediment in the kidney secretions. The many good reports I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills, led me to get a box of them at Leadbeater & Co.'s Drug Store. They fixed me up in fine shape."

N. Royal Street

C. N. Rauch, 223 North Royal St., Alexandria, Va., says: "Not a symptom of kidney complaint has bothered me since I used Doan's Kidney Pills some years ago. This speaks well for the remedy. I was troubled by my kidneys for three years and I think lifting was the cause. I had to give up my work but my back continued to bother me. I doctored for a long while with one of the leading physicians in this city, but he did not cure me. When I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills. I got a box at Leadbeater & Co.'s Drug Store. In a few days they relieved me and I continued taking them until I was well."

S. Lee Street

Mrs. Nettie G. Davis, 425 S. Lee St., Alexandria, Va., says: "I can give Doan's Kidney Pills my highest endorsement. I was cured of constant backache, lameness in my loins and dizzy spells. This remedy also strengthened my kidneys. You may continue the use of the testimonial I gave two years ago. I still take Doan's Kidney Pills occassionally with the most satisfactory results."

ELEPHANTS AS WORKERS.

Without Them Burma's Teakwood Trade Would Languish.

Since 1886 the export of teakwood from Burma has increased enormously; but, despite the phenomenally high price of the wood, it would not be profitable to work it, even in these days, without the elephant. In this trade the Burmese elephants, massive animals whose strength is almost unlimited, are seen at their best as beasts of burden.

From the time when the forest areas are purchased, before the trees are felled, to the hour of export on the ocean going vessels at the port on the Indian ocean the elephant is the main worker. Far away in the malarial swamps and almost impenetrable jungles this majestic beast first tramps down a passage through the undergrowth. Then, guided by his Indian keeper's prong, the elephant commences his arduous labor of dragging the felled trees to the river, whence they are conveyed by raft down country to the sawmills.

These enormous trees, untrimmed and cumbrous, are sometimes dragged up and down the jungle and mountain forest pathways en route to the river with rare precision. At the mills again the work of packing and stacking is done exclusively by elephants. When the trees are sawed into lengths the elephants do the piling, bringing the huge planks from the sheds and arranging them in an orderly manner in numbered piles.—Argonaut.

Hard on the Lawyer.

Sir William Jones was receiving a visit from Mr. Day, a man of some note at that time. During a conversation Sir William moved a book from its place, and a large spider dropped to the ground.

"Kill that spider, Day! Kill that spider!" cried the great scholar.

"No," said Mr. Day. "I will not kill that spider, Jones. I don't know that I have a right to kill that spider. Suppose now that you were going down to Westminster hall in your carriage and some superior being, who might have as much power over you as you have over this spider, should call out, 'Kill that lawyer! Kill that lawyer!' How should you like that, Jones? And I am sure that to most people a lawyer is a more noxious creature than a spider."

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, Feb. 13.—The road from the south end of the Highway Bridge to the entrance to the Arlington cemetery will be constructed long before July 1, when the appropriation of $44,00 secured by Representative Carlin for the purpose, epires.

This statement was made today by a man high in the councils of the War Department. He further stated that the Agricultural Department was not standing in the way of building this piece of roadway and that just as soon as weather conditions would permit the construction of the road would begin.

This road is to run through the Arlington Experimental Farm of the Department of Agriculture. There was a little difference of opinion between the Engineers of the War Department who are to build the road, and the Agricultural officials. But this has been overcome and an announcement will shortly be forthcoming as to the exact location of the road.

Representative Carlin this morning did not seem to be perturbed over the fact that the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce had appointed a committee to hurry the construction of the road. He thought it was a good thing to have this committee appointed in the hope that a little pressure upon the Washington officials would hurry the building of it. He said further, however, that he had no fear that the road would be completed this spring.

Senator Martin was not present at the counting of the electoral vote in the House of Representatives yesterday. This fact was noticed by his colleagues and upon inquiry it was ascertained that the Virginia Senator was out of town. It was stated at his office that he was in New York and then quite a lot of speculation was forthcoming as to whether he had gone to have a conference with President-elect Wilson. The Senator's office would only say that he was in New York. If he was at Trenton they did not know it.

The Army Appropriation bill will come up in the Senate tomorrow for consideration and at that time the two Virginia Senators are to make a strenuous endeavor to have it amended so as to carry the two appropriations for the construction of a Memorial Bridge and Mount Vernon Avenue. Senator Martin recently introduced two amendments to this bill in the Senate for the purpose of building the bridge and the highway. They were referred to the committee having in charge the Army bill, but when the bill was reported in the Senate yesterday neither was a part of it. Senator Du Pont, in charge of the bill, served notice tha the would ask for its consideration on Friday and it is then that the Senaeors from Virginia will make ther fight for the two appropriations.

Canvassing Vote.

With elaborate ceremony, the Senate and House of Representatives yesterday in joint session canvassed the electoral votes of the various states of the Union and officially proclaimed Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, and Thomas R. Marshall, of Indiana, elected President and Vice Presiden of the United States for the term beginning March 4.

Senator Bacon, presiding over the joint session, announced the election when, to the crowded floor and galleries of the House chamber he delivered the following proclamation prescribed in the official rules:

"This announcement of the state of the vote by the President of the Senate pro tempore shall be deemed a sufficient declaration of the persons elected President and Vice President of the United States, each for the term beginning March 4, 1913."

The noisy exuberance of the House preceedings was momentarily quieted by the advent of solemn senatorial dignity, when the proceedings began, Senator Bacon announced that no applause would be permitted, but the nature of the House eventually asserted itself, and there were cheers, handclapping, and yells as the canvass proceeded.

The recapitualation gave Wilson and Marshall 435 votes; Roosevelt and Johnson, 88 votes, and Taft, 8 votes. There was no response to the formal demand of Senator Bacon as to whether there was objection to the recording of the vote.

Franz Schumeier, a member of the lower house of the Austrian parliament, and a socialist leader, was assassinated last night by the Christian socialist and labor leader, Paul Kunschak. Kunschak followed Schumeier from a political meeting to the northwest railway station, where he shot him with a pistol. The motive is said to have been revenge.

PATRONS' DAY.

Parents And Guardians Visit Public Schools of the City Today.

Patrons' Day, observed from 9 a. m., to 3 p. m., today, was well attended by parents and guardians of children, and if the grown folks only knew how much the children appreciated the visits of their elders on this day a great many more visitors would have attended.

The boys and girls in the High School classes are also very appreciative of the visits of their elders, taking great pleasure in the event, as they receive much encouragement from such visits.

The State Board of Education requires all public schools in the state to hold Patron Day exercises, the superintendent of schools to exercise his discretion as to the number of Patrons Days to be held each session.

A fire drill was held at 12:30, the children filing out of the building quickly and in perfect order.

W. H. Sweeney, superintendent of the Alexandria schools, gave a review of the conditions as they are at present. He states that there is much overcrowding. In fact two schools are held daily at the Lee High school. One school from 8:30 to 12:30 and the second school from 1 o'clock to 5 p. m. This is made necessary on account of the large number of pupils and lack of room in the building.

Mr. Sweeney also stated that it is very desirable to get scholars out of the old Howell building, which is now used as an adjunct of the Washington school. This is the oldest school building in the United States, having been erected about 1785. As a historical structure is is valuable, but for purposes of modern teaching and use as a school building it is unsanitary and lacking in many respects. The teachers would rejoice to see a new public school building erected, as it is much needed.

Turkey Wants Peace.

Turkey has once more appealed to the powers to stop the war. The request for intervention has been made in London by Ambassador Tewfik Pasha to Sir Edward Grey who communicated the same to the ambassadors of the powers. The ambassadors' conference meets Friday. It is stated that the powers will probably refuse to intervene unless Turkey's proposals are likely to be acceptable to the allies.

Meantime Turkey contines unwonted activity in war operations, though the strict censorship established at Constantinople prevents much news reaching the outside world. Apparently Turkey is planning to take the Bulgarians in the rear by landing troops in Thrace, westward of the Bulgar position before Tchatalja. Turkish landings are reported at Rodosto and Silisley, while troops are also being rushed to Gallipoli where there has been severe fighting.

The actual invasion of Bulgaria is hinted in the report of a Russian steamer which arrived yesterday at Odessa saying she had sighted a flotilla of large Turksh troopships bound from Asia Minor in the direction of the Bulgarian coast of the Black Sea.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The Vatican denies absolutely the report published in America that the Pope left the Vatican to visit the home of his dead sister Tuesday. The authorities at the Vatican add that such action on the part of the Pope would be an utter contradiction to the Pontiff's character, as he considers it his sacred duty to remain within the Vatican walls.

William Kerstetter, chief of police of Sunburry, Pa., died yesterday from wounds received Tuesday night when he and C. E. Rossiter, a business man, were shot by Rossiter's 20-year-old son. Young Rossiter, who had learned that his father and the police were about to take him to a sanitarium, barricaded himself in the attic of his home and fired upon his parent and Kerstetter with an old musket when they went up to get him. The father was also seriously wounded. Young Rossiter is in the county jail.

Sleep Through Fire.

Coatesville, Pa., Feb. 13.—Twelve negroes who work on night turn in the iron and steel mills, slept on yesterday in an apartment house while the fire department was battling with flames on the first floor of a building leased by Fred Holland, colored, and which had caught fire from an overheated stove.

Although the house was filled with smoke the sleeping negroes were only aroused after Fire Chief Marshal Steinwachs had gone into the rooms and given the alarm; and then one of the men got up, raised a window, and crawled back into bed, not realizing the danger. The fire was extinguished, but not until much damage had resulted on the first floor.
